FORESIGHT & GENEROSITY

ESTATE PLANNING

Preserving and protecting those things that we all hold dear – our quality of life, a distinctive heritage, and the integrity of the Blue Ridge Parkway’s natural wonders – is a wise investment. You can help protect the Blue Ridge Parkway forever by remembering FRIENDS of the Blue Ridge Parkway in your will.

It’s simple. Add only one of the following sentences to your Will, or do so by using a codicil to your existing Will:

1. I hereby give _____ % of my residuary estate to FRIENDS of the Blue Ridge Parkway, Inc., a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization, currently located for identification purposes at P. O. Box 20986, Roanoke, Virginia 24018, to be used at its sole discretion for its charitable purposes.
2. I hereby bequeath $ _____ cash, to FRIENDS of the Blue Ridge Parkway, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, currently located for identification purposes at P. O. Box 20986, Roanoke, Virginia 24018, to be used at its sole discretion for its charitable purposes.
3. I hereby devise the following property to FRIENDS of the Blue Ridge Parkway, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, currently located for identification purposes at P. O. Box 20986, Roanoke, Virginia 24018, to be used at its sole discretion for its charitable purposes: [legal description of property, whether real property or personal property].

Please note that FRIENDS of the Blue Ridge Parkway does not give legal advice nor does it in any way practice law. Please have your estate planning documents drawn by, or at least reviewed and approved by, an estate planning attorney prior to executing the document, as laws and specific estate planning statutes and judicial opinions may vary by state. Federal and state estate and income tax considerations should also be reviewed by your own professional adviser to ensure that you and your heirs receive full tax advantages from your generosity.
